Newsletter 2020-2021

Volume III

The sudden shutdown of educational institutions has revealed the necessity of quality education through virtual platforms, e-learning, and the virtual way of doing things.

As we are passing through an unprecedented crisis since the year 2020, we are confident that we will overcome all the odds by our commitments and ethics and pave the way for the betterment of education fraternity and the society in general. Towards this we have started our online classes from the 13th of April 2020 using various innovative tools to facilitate learning by the students.

It's time for a digital drive to encourage learning during a lockdown. Education in dramatically changing times as such requires a considerable effort and innovation to thrive. The current moment is crucial for strengthening and pushing forward the digital initiative to faster learning and education among the majority. It's obvious that the spread of corona virus pandemic has forced us to rethink and redesign our lives. Almost everything suffered the bow of the COVID-19 pandemic, from loss of lives to loss of jobs, from education to health care, from entertainment to travel. It seemed the whole world was pushed to a standstill. Digital tools, therefore, thrived as the forecast and effective alternative to keep up some semblance with the normality.
